CALL FOR PAPER
International Conference on Human Ethics for Peace and Security
“Searching for a New Paradigm of Living Together”

16-18 November 2012

at Lotus Hotel, Kunming, Yunnan, People’s Republic of China

Ethical behavior is of the essence when we talk about peace and human security. To invest our efforts in enhancing ethics is to shine a light on our capacities as humans to sustain peace within and between countries and peoples. Through this we believe that the many roads of peace shall be seen and followed.

This year, the Regional Unit for Social and Human Sciences in Asia and the Pacific (RUSHSAP) UNESCO Bangkok invites you to bring your powerful imaginative skills and critical thinking to the International Conference on Human Ethics for Peace and Security: Searching for a New Paradigm of Living Together to be held in Kunming, Yunnan, Republic of China, in collaboration with the College of Arts and Science at Yunnan Normal University and Ruamrudee International School (RIS), Thailand.

Paper presentations are welcomed for the following sub-themes:

- Fundamental Human Ethics: Unique or Common?
- Comparison between Ethics in My Country and Other Countries: Is there Any Common Ground?
- How is Ethics Applied in Living as a Community?
- The Impacts of Ethics on the Way People Think and Live?

Both paper presentation and participation are welcomed from academics, scholars, policy makers, teachers, students, and enthusiasts in various disciplines, and from around the world.

Call for Papers

The organizers invite papers on the Conference issues described above.
