F.No.152-1/2015 (IC)

April, 2019

Sub: Call for Fulbright foreign language teaching assistant programme.

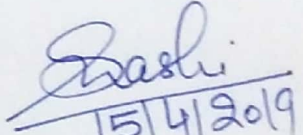

USIEF, the Fulbright Commission in India has announced the U.S of Department of State funded 2020 Fulbright Foreign Language Teaching Assistant (FLTA) Program for early career English teachers teaching at college level or training to become teachers of English or professionals, in related fields.

The purpose of the FLTA program is to strengthen the instruction of foreign languages at U.S colleges and universities while providing future teachers of English with the opportunity to refine their teaching skills, increase their English language proficiency and extend their knowledge of the cultures and customs of the United States. Selected FLTA fellows from India will teach Bengali, Hindi, or Urdu at select U.S campuses during their nine month non degree grant beginning August/September 2020.

Applicants can obtain program details including application materials from USIEF website www.usief.org.in or by clicking the link <http://www.usief.org.in/Fellowships/Foreign-Language-Teaching-Assistant-Program.aspx>.

The application deadline for Indian candidates is August 16, 2019.

There is no financial liability on the part of UGC for this program
