Sub: 2014 Australia Awards Endeavour Scholarships and Fellowships.

Sir/ Madam,

The Ministry of Human Resource Development, New Delhi has forwarded the 2014 round of Australia Awards Endeavour Scholarships and Fellowships is an Australian Government's competitive and merit based international scholarship program and features the inaugural AIEC Research Fellowships announced by Australian PM Julia Gillard during her October 2012 visit to India.

The Scholarship is awarded annually and on an ongoing basis and will allow two researchers, preferably one incoming (Indian) and one outgoing (Australian) to receive up to $23,500 each to undertake short-term research at either masters, doctoral or post-doctoral level in one another's countries. The last date of application for this scholarship is 30th June, 2013.

The AIEC Fellowships aim to foster links that will support the bilateral relationship between Australia and India into the future, whilst providing valuable support for the activities of the Council in one of the priority areas of skills, student mobility and welfare, institutional collaboration in higher education, research, or quality assurance and qualifications recognition. The Ministry has requested the Commission for wider publicity of the above information.

The suitable qualified persons may to obtain the guidelines/information from the Endeavour Awards 2014 Applicant available at:-
