Sub: Call for nomination for the UNESCO-Japan Prize on ESD 2021-regarding

Nominations are invited for the sixth edition of the UNESCO-Japan Prize on Education for Sustainable Development. Funded by the Government of Japan, the UNESCO-Japan Prize on education for Sustainable Development consists of three awards of USD 50,000 for each recipient. The Prize aims to generate and scale up action at all levels of education and learning, and contribute to the implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals. Further information on the Prize and the nomination process can be found at <https://en.unesco.org/prize-esd>.

Applications are to be submitted by the Member States through their National Commission to UNESCO. Each nomination should be accompanied by a written recommendation of the head of the nominating institution which shall also include:

- a) A description of the candidate's background and achievements.
- b) A summary of the work or the results of the work, publications and other supporting documents of major importance.
- c) A definition of the candidate's contribution to the Prize's objectives.

Nominations may be sent via e-mail to UGC at proposalic@gmail.com by 26th March, 2021.
