SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE
+ DESIGN

“Glocal Innovation Leader. Global Aspiration, Local Inspiration.”

School of Architecture and Design, King Mongkut's University of Technology Thonburi

The School of Architecture and Design was established in 1994 to provide a complete program of architecture and design studies in English. Our five (5) bachelor degree programs (international programs) are currently available: Architecture, Interior Architecture, Landscape Architecture, Design Innovation, and Communication Design; and eight fields of study in Graduate Program in Design and Planning (international programs).

SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE & DESIGN

Our Objectives

SoA+D aims to be the academic center of architecture and design in the Asia Pacific region. We motivate our students to be the key players in social and community development by providing strong foundation of architecture and design knowledge together with moral and ethical responsibilities for all humanity.

Our Approach

Our school strongly emphasizes the project-based learning and experimentation grounded in relevant issues and current debates both in Thailand and in the international arena. We believe that successful design education should aim to produce not only competent and skillful designers, but also creative practitioners who have socio-cultural awareness and environmental responsibilities.

Our International Programs
